Regt^t. Orders by Col^l. Pinckney 13th march 78

as the allowing officers to Change their Guards has Been found productive of Great Inconvenience the Col^l. Gives this Notice that he will not in futer permit it, Excepting for Cause of Real Necessity as by Some Mistake the Gen^l. Orders Issued by General Washington on the 8th of May Last & by Major Gen^l. How on the 2^d of Decm^r. Relative playing at Cards & Dice & Gaming were Not transmitted to fort Moultrie where the First Reg^t. was then Garisoned, & as the Col^l. has with Concern, found that some officers have Endeavoured to avail themselves of this mistake & have Disregarded those orders although they must have Been Sensible that Such Gen^l. Orders were Existing, in order to pervent any advantage from Being taken the Said orders are here Inserted as follows—

Gen^l. Howe's orders at Head Quarters in Charles Town Decem^r. 2^d. 1777 the following orders of his Excellency Gen^l. Washington has not till Lately Been officially Receiv'd Gen^l. Howe Expects & is Determined to Exert the Strictest Obedience to it, from persons of every Rank in that Devision of the army, he has the Honour to Command & he hopes the Salutary that it is intended to answer will Induce all persons to obey it without Reluctance—

Head Quarters Morrice Town 8th: May 1777 as few Vices are attended with more pernicious Consequence's sivel Life, so there are more fatal in a Melitary one, then that of Gaming w^{ch}: often Brings Disgrace and Ruin upon officers and injury & punishment upon the Soldiers and Reports prevailing Which it is to be fear'd is too well found that this Distructive Vice has Spread Painfull Influanace in the army and in a perticular manner to the Prejudice of the Recruting Service, the Commander in Chief in the Most pointed & Expliset terms forbids all officers and Soldier playing Cards Dice or at any Game, Except those of Exercise for Devertion, it Being Impossible if the practice be allow'd at all to Distinguish Between Innocent for Amusement and Crimonal Gaming for P & Sordid purposes, officers attentive to their Duty will find abundant of Imployment in Training & Decipling ther men providing for them & Seeing they appear Neat & Clean & in a Soldier like manner nor will any thing Redownd any thing to their Honour or afford them more Solid amusements or Better answer the End of their appointments then to Devout Vacant moments they may have to Study of Millitary orders—

The Commanding officer of every Corps is Strictly Injoin'd to have this order Strictly Read and Strongly Impressed on those under his Command, any officer or soldier or other persons belonging to or following the army Either in Camp or Quarters or the Recruiting Service or else where persuming under pretence to Disobey this order Shall be tried by a Gen^l. Court Martial—

The Gen^l. officers of Division of the army are to pay the Strictest attention to the Due exertion thereof—

The Adju^t. Gen^l. is to Transmit a Coppy thereof to the Different Departments of the army, to Cause the same to be Immediately Published in the Gazett of each State, for the Information of officers Dispers'd in the Recruiting Service—the above Orders of the Commander in Chief & of Gen^l. Howe, are to be Red to the Reg^t. this and the 3 Insuing Field days—
